Spotlight

UTAH ARTS COLLECTIVE FOUNDATION

The UAC Foundation is the non-profit organization and fundraising arm of the Utah Arts Collective. The non-profit was created in 2017 to give dancers, parents, and faculty the opportunity to serve in our community.

The Nutcracker Tea Party is an hour long family-friendly narrated version of the Nutcracker ballet, with choreographed treats and a magical atmosphere. It is produced by volunteers and generous sponsors. The production is a benefit for the Wasatch County Children's Justice Center. Over the years, UAC Foundation has donated over $175,000 to the Wasatch County Children's Justice Center while sharing the holiday magic of the Nutcracker.

Dancers enrolled in the UAC Ballet program have the opportunity to be a part of the Nutcracker Tea cast. It allows their students to study classical ballet, learn from professional performance opportunities, and experience arts education.

Utah Arts Collective also offers programs in Dance, Theatre, and Preschool.

The Nutcracker Tea has 12 shows Nov. 14-23 at the Midway Town Hall.

Bart the Bear Mural

One of Utah's most beloved animals, Bart the Bear (1977-2000) was a Heber-based movie and television actor trained by Doug and Lynne Seus. Utah Wildlife Walls has partnered with Heber City, Heber Valley Entertainment, Body and Soul Studios, the Utah Film Commission and the Vital Ground Foundation to celebrate Bart's legacy with a monumental new mural in downtown Heber. Located across the street from the historic Avon Theater, the mural is made possible through support from a Heber City TAPS grant and Vital Ground.

Celebrate Bart's legacy with a weekend of Bart movie screenings and events, including Bart storytelling with Doug and Lynne and a book release party for Lynne's new memoir, The Grizzlies and Us, plus conversation with grizzly bear advocate Doug Peacock and Vital Ground staff.

November 15 & 16 at the Avon Theater
